

Pupil Premium for 2013-14: Intended Allocation

How Pupil Premium Funding is targeted to improve outcomes for pupils?	Intended impact of targeted funding allocation	Pupil Premium Allocation
Economic:
To allow pupils to join the residential experiences organised by the school.	To promote new learning 'beyond the classroom'. To provide a social and emotional learning experience.	£2500
To allow pupils to be involved in off-site visits where a voluntary contribution is requested.	To both support and enhance curriculum delivery. To promote an engagement with learning.	£1000
To provide Free School Meals for allocated pupils.	To ensure that FSM pupils have access to a hot midday meal.	£21,953
Emotional:
To provide targeted Pupil Mentor time for individual pupil and their families.	To promote a readiness for learning. To improve behaviour for learning.	£6,903
Educational:
To provide targeted intervention work with a higher level teaching assistant (1:1 or small group)	To improve knowledge, skills and understanding. To improve confidence.	£11,748
To provide targeted Reading intervention work with a teacher (1:1)	To improve reading confidence and skills. To enhance pupil access to learning.	£11,351
To provide targeted intervention to work with an EAL Learning Mentor (1:1 or small group)	To improve spoken and written English. To enable more confident access to the curriculum.	£4,275
To provide additional teaching assistant time in classes.	To allow pupils to generally access learning support in class.	£12,342
To provide attendance and welfare support for pupils and their families.	To ensure attendance is maximised. To ensure learners are in school learning.	£480
		Total:£72,552
Total Allocation: approx. £72,450		